COLLEGE OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

College Administration
Jeanette Mendez, PhD—Provost and Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs
Craig Freeman, JD—Interim Vice Provost and Dean
Beverly Morris, MS—Director of Academic Advising
Megan Pitt, PhD—Recruitment Manager

Campus Address and Phone
Address: 700 N. Greenwood Ave., Tulsa, OK 74106-0702
Phone: 918-594-8355
Website: https://tulsa.okstate.edu/cps

College Description
The OSU College of Professional Studies, housed at OSU-Tulsa, is designed to address the workforce needs of local industries and agencies in Tulsa with a special emphasis on working adults with some college credit but no degree.

The College of Professional Studies offers flexible bachelor’s degree programs to help working adults complete a bachelor’s degree that adds value to their current career. The Bachelor of Professional Studies is adaptable, with a flexible credit for prior learning, transfer credit and military credits.

From an employer’s perspective, these degree programs are a new form of workforce development, providing a clear pathway to overcome the college degree barrier and enable employees to advance within their organization. Curricula are designed to meet the needs of students and the companies who employ them. Tulsa-area employers who have partnered with OSU-Tulsa on these degree programs include the Tulsa Police Department and TTCU Federal Credit Union.

Academic Programs
The Bachelor of Professional Studies in Organizational Leadership (http://catalog.okstate.edu/college-professional-studies/organizational-leadership-bps/) is a practical, comprehensive degree option for professionals seeking to advance in their current career by earning a bachelor’s degree. In many companies and organizations, advancement opportunities are tied to educational attainment. The Bachelor of Professional Studies in Organizational Leadership is designed to help earn a raise, get a promotion, or meet career goals.

The Bachelor of Professional Studies in Public Safety (http://catalog.okstate.edu/college-professional-studies/public-safety-bps/) is a practical, comprehensive degree option for public safety professionals. Students will gain the knowledge and skills to take on a variety of roles in the public safety sector. The coursework emphasizes essential human skills to successfully work in public safety, including cultural awareness, conflict resolution and effective communication.

Requirements for degree programs and options are detailed in Undergraduate Degree Requirements available online at https://registrar.okstate.edu/degree_requirements.html.