DANC 2563 American Social Dance and Visual Culture
Description: This introductory course offers a beginning-level survey of the cultural history of social dance in North America from the eighteenth century to the present. It combines study of the history, theory, and visual/material culture of social dance with physical practice of specific dance forms. Because few comprehensive written sources exist for social dance, visual art, including film, animation, paintings, sculpture, photography, and illustration, is a vital tool for understanding historic dance and its role in American society. Over the course of the semester, we will examine the visual culture of social dance in order to gain insight into its historical functions as a tool for social cohesion, intercultural exchange, protest/activism, and identity formation, among other things. Through the practice of these dance forms, we will add an experiential component to our analysis of the roles that social dance has played in American culture over time. Same course as ART 2563.

DANC 2603 Context and Cultures: Mapping the Dancing Body (H)
Description: This course orients students to the field of dance as an art form and academic discipline that exists beyond simple entertainment. Through readings, video viewing, discussions, writing, and creative assignments, students will attend to “reading” the body as a space of intelligence, a creator and product of culture, and entwined within its socio-political contexts. Students will apply critical lenses of gender, race/ethnicity, economics, sexuality, and colonial/post-colonial/neocolonialism to analyze systems of power. Coursework is curated to encourage curiosity, critical engagement, and a layered understanding of the rich lineages of dance. Students will demonstrate their understanding through written, spoken, and movement-based work.

DANC 3703 Competition Dance - Through an Ethnographic Lens
Description: This upper-level course provides students the opportunity to learn, broadly, about dance as an expression of culture and, specifically, about the phenomenon of commercial competition dance in the United States. Through readings, lectures, discussion, and active fieldwork, students will learn about and utilize Ethnography as a framework for research; apply critical lenses to analysis of research, and plan, administer, and report on active field research. From week to week, students will observe and analyze filmed competition dance classes, rehearsals, and performances through critical research lenses of economics, pedagogy, race/ethnicity, gender, and performance of sexuality. Students will also consider factors of child development as they relate to these lenses. Final work will be submitted as a written report and a verbal presentation developed in collaboration with a small group of peers.
