TELECOMMUNICATIONS MANAGEMENT (TCOM)

TCOM 5153 International Telecommunications Management
Prerequisites: Graduate standing and consent of program director.
Description: Investigation of the institutions that affect the use of telecommunications. The various parts of the federal government involved, such as the Department of Commerce, the FCC and the Department of State. The role of international institutions, including the ITU, UNESCO, and the various satellite organizations such as INTELSAT.
Credit hours: 3
Contact hours: Lecture: 3
Levels: Graduate
Schedule types: Lecture
Department/School: Mgmt Sci & Info Sys